

LANDSLIDE FOR M'KINLEY YERKES MAY WIN.

GREAT GAINS

Made by the Republicans of Hopkins County in Total Vote.

LOSSES MADE BY DEMOCRATS.

Beckham Did Not Receive Full Vote as Compared with 1896.

NOTWITHSTANDING INCREASED POPULATION.

The total vote cast in Hopkins county shows great gains by the Republicans since 1896 and a falling off of the Democratic vote. The only Democratic rooster that has been called upon to crow was pulled off his dusty perch to head a column entitled "Old Hopkins Redeemed," in the Hustler yesterday. The way old Hopkins is redeemed, from a Democratic standpoint, is a caution.

The redemption comes in the way of a largely increased Republican vote and the falling off of the straight Democratic vote in the totals polled this year as compared with 1896. The vote Hopkins gives Yerkes is 3,055, which compared with the vote for McKinley in 1896, 2,457, is a gain of 598 for the Republicans. Compare Yerkes' vote with the vote for Taylor last year, 2,597, and there is a gain of 458 votes over last year's total for the Republicans.

Take now the Democratic end of this "redemption" process. In 1896 Bryan received 3,457 votes in Hopkins. This year

Beckham received 3,294 votes, by virtue of being a candidate in a presidential year. Last year Goebel received 2,307 votes in the county. The vote of this year shows a falling off in the Democratic total of 163 in the county, notwithstanding the large increase in the county's population during the four years past. The fact that Beckham received 987 votes more than Goebel is not significant except to show that the contest for President brings out the party vote. But note the fact that Beckham's vote is 163 less than the vote cast for Bryan in 1896. The steady gain of the Republicans and independent Democrats and the loss of the Machine Democrats is apparent since 1896. The vote for Taylor was 121 greater than for McKinley in 1896 and Yerkes is given a further increase of 458 over the vote for Taylor. Goebel's vote was 1150 less than that for Bryan in 1896.

BYRAN MAY CARRY THE STATE.

Judge Ed C. O'Rear Is Certainly Elected to Court of Appeals.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 7—2 a.m. —The State is so close that it is very probable that Bryan will receive the electoral vote and Yerkes, Republican, elected Governor. Yerkes will lead the ticket, according to indications, by about 5,000 votes. If the Eleventh district comes up to the expectations he will be elected.

Judge Ed C. O'Rear is certainly elected to the Court of Appeals from the Seventh Appellate district. This will make the Court of Appeals Republican.

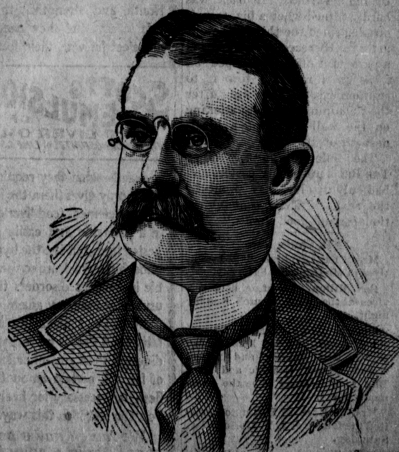

Judge Ed C. O'Rear was seen by a Dispatch reporter and said in regard to the election: "I had come in at that hour. I feel assured of my election. It is impossible to get figures which are complete enough to make the result certain."

Mrs. White Dead.

Mrs. Fannie White died in Louisville Tuesday morning of congestion of the brain. She was the wife of Chas. W. White, the popular grocery drummer and president of the wholesale firm of C. W. Adams & son, of Louisville. Mr. White is also seriously ill. Messrs. Jas. R. Rash and M. Cain went to Louisville Tuesday to be with Mr. White. Both are special friends of that gentleman.

done better but this is pretty well done and if the Democrats can get any consolation out of the immense increase in the Republican total vote of the county they ought to be allowed to enjoy that consolation.

TOWN ELECTIONS.

Morton's Gap and Barnsley Chose Officials.

Morton's Gap town election Tuesday resulted in a victory of Coyle for marshal over Holmes, who was supported by the United Mine Workers, by a majority of 61. The vote stood Coyle, 108; Holmes, 47. Duvall, for judge, defeated Vincent, the vote standing 92 to 66.

At Barnsley the city ticket supported by the U. M. W. sympathizers was defeated by a vote of 52 to 81.

A WARM MESSAGE.

A Young Lady Telegraphed to the Man Who Had Lost the Bet.

A telegram flashed over the wire yesterday from the young

CHRISTIAN COUNTY

Longstaff-Jenning.

On last Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock Mr. John Longstaff of this place, and Miss Cornelia Jennings, of Hecla, who united in marriage in the little Hecla church, with Rev. B. M. Currie, officiating. The church was beautifully decorated with evergreens and flowers. The groom is well known at this place, being a popular conductor on the L. & N. railroad, and a son of Mr. Thos. Longstaff, while the bride is the pretty daughter of Mr. William Jennings, of Hecla. A reception was given at the home of the bride immediately after the ceremony. The Bee extends congratulations and best wishes.

Crouching

MCKINLEY AND ROOSEVELT.

The People Have Decided Upon Four Years More of Republican Rule.

PRESENT FIGURES ONLY APPROXIMATE.

The Returns, However, show that the Republican Nominee Will Have a Large Majority in the Electoral College, and a Republican Congress With a Working Majority.

New York, Nov. 7, Midnight.—It became evident at a very early hour last evening that the election of McKinley and Roosevelt was assured. At half-past eight o'clock returns from nearly two-thirds of the election districts of Greater New York had been received, indicating beyond question that Bryan and Stevenson could not expect more than 25,000 or 30,000 plurality in this democratic stronghold, and unless there was a landslide in the outside counties beyond all reasonable expectation the pivotal state of New York had declared in unmistakable terms, although by a greatly reduced majority, for the republican candidates. As the night progressed it only served to confirm this judgment. The returns from Illinois betrayed a like condition. The republican plurality of 1896 was greatly reduced, but it was still far too large to be overcome.

On the other hand the returns from Indiana, Michigan, and the two Dakotas, Utah and Wyoming, as well as Nebraska, seemed to indicate strong republican gains over 1896. Delaware, Maryland and West Virginia had given decisive republican pluralities.

The whole story was easily and briefly told. The republican ticket would have a larger electoral vote than four years ago, but in the larger states of the east and middle west the plurality had been greatly reduced.

Massachusetts had fallen from 174,000 to 80,000; New York from 205,000 to 135,000, and Illinois from 142,000 to 100,000 or less.

A WEEK OF ACTIVE SCOUTING.

Americans Uniformly Successful in Operations in Essex—Ex-Insurgents Pledge Their Loyalty.

Manila, Nov. 5.—Last week was devoted to active scouting. The insurgents, having failed to crush a single garrison, are now experiencing a reaction.

Lieutenants Wilson and Dority, of the Forty-fifth volunteer infantry, destroyed large stores of rice, four granaries and a barracks near Bato. Capt. Atkinson, with 24 men of the Thirty-seventh volunteer infantry, attacked 100 insurgents, under Col. Valencia, recovering two American prisoners and capturing a considerable quantity of ammunition and supplies. A native orchestra lured the United States troops from their quarters near Dagupan, while the insurgents attacked the rear, killing two Americans and wounding three.

MAKING THE PUBLIC PAY.

The Coal Barons Intend to Make the Consumer Bear the Cost of the Recent Strike.

New York, Nov. 3.—Local coal dealers have been thrown into a state of consternation by an announcement that the price of anthracite coal had been advanced 50 cents a ton.

This advance is general and applies to the annual production of anthracite coal—50,000,000 tons—it means an additional profit of the Coal trust of $25,000,000.

A dealer, who has analyzed the conditions of mining in the anthracite region, writes to the Evening Post that, in granting an increase of ten per cent in wages to the miners, the cost of production will be increased 80 cents per ton. As the price of coal to the consumer had advanced 50 cents a ton, the new advance gives the operators an additional profit of $1 on the ton, or $50,000,000 in income.

SENATOR DAVIS IS WORSE.

May Have to Sacrifice Post or Entire Leg to Save His Life—Chicago Expert Is Called.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 4.—The condition of Senator C. K. Davis is reported as decidedly worse to-night, and grave fears are entertained that if his life is saved it may be at the cost of his foot or possibly his right leg. The post which he is expected to forego is his foot and for the removal of which two surgical operations were performed, has now gathered further back, and indications are that it is permeating the entire limb. His fever has returned and does not yield as readily to treatment as formerly.

JENNIE BOSCHERT CASE.

All Fear of the Man Implicated in the Parsons (N. J.) Tragedy Indicted by the Grand Jury.

Death and Andrew Campbell, who are charged with the murder of Jennie Boschert, who was dragged to death on October 18. There were two indictments against each of the young men.

An Absurd Rumor.

New York, Nov. 3.—Rumors were revived yesterday that H. E. Huntington contemplates resigning from the presidency of the Southern Pacific Co., the cause being stated that he was dissatisfied with the election of the new president, C. M. Hay.

Chairman Tweed characterized the rumor as absurd and declared that no member of the board had more heartily approved Mr. Hay's election than Mr. Huntington.

Received with Great Enthusiasm.

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 6.—The Toronto soldiers of the south African contingent returned here and were received with tremendous enthusiasm. Traffic was suspended for hours, and altogether the demonstration counts as one of the most notable in the history of the city.

SOLDIERS OF THE QUEEN.

An Appeal in Their Behalf Sent by Lord Roberts to His Countrymen at Home.

DO NOT DEBAUCH THE GALLANT LADS.

He is Proud of Their Conduct During the Arduous Campaign, and Does Not Wish to See Them Degraded by Being Led into Excesses at Their Homecoming.

London, Nov. 4.—Lord Roberts sends from Pretoria a striking appeal to his countrymen to refrain from turning the homecoming of troops into a drunken orgy. He expresses the sincere hope that the welcome will not take the form of treating to stimulants, and "thus lead to excesses that will tend to degrade those whom the nation delights to honor and love the soldiers of the queen in the eyes of the world, which watched with undiminished admiration the great work that has been performed for their sovereigns and country."

"I, therefore, beg earnestly," said Lord Roberts, "that the public will refrain from tempting my gallant comrades, but will rather aid them to see both the splendid reputation they have won for the imperial army."

"I am very proud to be able to record, with the most absolute truth, that the conduct of this army, from first to last, has been exemplary. Not a single case of serious crime has been brought to my notice, indeed, nothing deserving the name of crime, have trust in the men's own soldierly feeling and good sense, and they have borne themselves like heroes on the battlefield and like gentlemen on all other occasions."

"Most Malicious Falsehoods." "The most malicious falsehoods were spread by the authorities of the Transvaal of the brutality of British soldiers, but the people were soon reassured that they had nothing to fear from the man in khaki, no matter how battered and war-stained his appearance."

"This testimony," concludes Lord Roberts, "I feel sure will be very gratifying to the people of Great Britain, and to the greater British, whose sons shared to the fullest extent the suffering as well as the glory of the war, and who helped so unflinchingly to bring it to a successful close."

Reason for the Appeal.

Lord Roberts explains that he thus appeals because of the greater British, whose sons shared to the fullest extent the suffering as well as the glory of the war, and who helped so unflinchingly to bring it to a successful close.

DOWIE ELDERS OUTRAGED.

Mansfield, Ohio, Again Disgraced by a Lawless Mob of Citizens.

Mansfield, O., Nov. 5.—A vigilance committee of men and boys, who have been known as the "Dowie" mob, accompanied by a woman, presumably his wife, in the eastern part of the town, yesterday, E. H. Leiby, a local Dowieite, who was with them, was chased to a swamp and made his escape. Leiby and the woman were taken to the Erie depot, no officers being in sight, and after being held there for two hours, were compelled by ticket collectors to leave.

In the meantime the elder who refused to give his name, was also brought in by a citizen and deported on a train. Both men were kicked and cuffed by the crowd, which numbered several hundred before the train arrived. While the unknown endeavor to make a speech from the rear platform of the train he was pelted with stones and gravel.

For Breach of Discipline.

Culver, Ind., Nov. 4.—One hundred and five of the 100th Cavalry military academy at Lake Maxinkuckee, Ind., have been summarily dismissed for insubordination, the command declaring that it were better the bats and owls should find refuge in the halls than that insubordination to discipline should gain a foothold.

A Destructive Agent.

New York, Nov. 4.—Investigation by the health department into the cause of the explosion which wrecked Tamm's drug house and adjoining buildings, has developed the fact that the firm had stored in the building, without a permit, 1,500 gallons of kerosene, which made a more destructive than gun cotton.

British Losses in Africa.

London, Nov. 4.—The daily tale of British casualties in South Africa is heavy. During the month of October the British lost 167 killed in action, including 15 officers; 71 who died of wounds, 267 who died of disease, 22 who died of accidents, and 37 captured or missing.

Altogether Too Affectionate.

New York, Nov. 4.—Edward Kieren, principal of the high school in Westchester, N. J., is to be tried for caring and keeping his girl pupils. He is said to have shown special affection for the pretty girls from 13 to 15 years of age.

saddened.

Chicago, Nov. 4.—Henry F. Wachsmuth, a retired capitalist, aged 75, died suddenly Friday night at his residence in this city. He suffered from a heart attack.

THEM PESKY REPUBLICANS.

Written for THE BEE.

While I don't want 2 divide honors with Jerrymire, and lacerate the boozum of the public with a chaptal of lamentations, howsomever, like Job's kumforter, I must speak, that I may be eased.

The subject of my tail of woes polyticks. It do seem that when Republicans are mighty techy and hard 2 please, I am one of the "Unterrified" myself; but it seems that when we pile up hefty arguments in support of our long-sufferin' caws, they, with the infinity of Satten, are reddy with affirb rejinders that so closely exesbles truth it takes a expert 2 see the diffience. Of course I up it; but I'm feard the "Grate Common People" will fale 2 ketch on. Finistance, thar's that subject of jilly ballots. True, the man what printed the ballots, swore on oath that he printed them fer 41 counties (includin' Fulton and Graves) outen 40 pound paper; and the Republicans pretend 2 say they don't see how them ballots was plenty thick in Dimmycratic Counties, but becum thick in Republican counties? Hartless reches? They fale 2 consider that the rarafide atmsufear (that is, in prose, simply are) of the mountings had a X ray reflect on them ballots, so that we could see thru 'em!

Wharaz, in the Pennyrite deestrick the fogs from the rivers and ponds, assisted by the fetid breath of numerous maunding polyticksians, made them ballots perfectly opaque.

Then them Republicans are tryin' to pick a flaw in Jo Blackburn fer Senator. They say the voter was throwed out, then thar was no election; if thar was no election; then Jo Blackburn not elected; and of Jo was not elected, then he's not Senator!

Fer shame! Whoever seed sich logio as that?—They fale 2 see that Fulton, Pintz and Yintz has the right to say wh's elected.

And then they out up, and raised all manner of Kane about the election law. They actually looked fer us, with only 88 majority on jint ballot in the Legislator to pass a far law! ("Now I almost hear 'em sayin, kinder ironlike hear 'em, 'No, we did' look fer eny such a thing.") But what did we do? Why, we unselfishly attended a call session of Legislator; we also attended several ferars and hoss races at the expense of the State; we drew our pay; we fit and bled and died fer our country; and finally, at the pauly cost of only about $50,000 to the tax payers of this State, we made the grate change from a squar 2 a cirkle under the devide! And yit they are not satisfied! No, sir! Fifty thousand dollars 2 boot between a squar and a cirkle don't begin to satisfy 'em!

Then thar's my own kinsman, Bee Up, what writ in THE BEE not long ago, about trusts. I do want he'd a kep quiet! What he said was, of course; but then thar warn't no necessity of tellin' it. And the Republican papers is always talkin' about Joneses round cotton bale trust; but they never mention the fact seed round cotton bale trust is patented! Startlingly no harm can cum from a patent trust!

Then az the last drags of the bitterest kup that faye can press 2 mortl mrips, (az the poet sez), cum the news that the Dimmycratic cherman has conceded the state of Ohier 2 McKinley! I seed that statement 2 day with my own eyes! I am now prepared for anything! I should not now be surprised 2 see whar Brine himself expressed some doubt of his ability 2 carry Pennsylvania!

Yours truly, J. C. A. Lowell, Mass.

Miss Georgia Wyatt entertained quite a number of her friends on last Tuesday evening.

The Second Congressional District Educational Association will meet at Morgantown November 30, and continue in session two days. Arrangements are being made for a fine program. Some of our teachers will doubtless attend.

Mrs. Martha Murphy died at the residence of Mrs. John Murphy, of the Pond River country, at the age of sixty-eight, last Friday, and was buried the following day at Elm Grove. Rev. Everett, of Hanson, conducted the funeral services.

The telephone worked well so far as mechanical results went, but it talked out of the wrong side of its mouth at the Democratic ballroom last Tuesday night at Masonic Hall. The only comfort it gave was Hopkins County Democratic by a paltry majority of 389 for Beckham.

The operator of the electric street-car, which gave such good notice on the screen over the depot, put the Democratic "rooster" to the ax in a style which pleased the Republicans. It was a made up picture and fit the occasion admirably.

The infant child of Perry Vincent died Saturday morning at the home of Mrs. Frank Richardson, who has had the little one in charge since the death of Mrs. Vincent. The funeral services were conducted Sunday morning by Rev. B. M. Currie at the Earlinton cemetery.

Quite a number of young people went to Madisonville last Friday night to hear Rev. Tharpe, who has been conducting a meeting at the Christian Church at that place. Those who went were Mrs. W. R. Coyle, Misses Minnie and Alice Bourland, Annie Moore, Aggie Wyatt and Annie Ashby and Messrs. Charles Webb and Henry Browning.

CUBAN CONVENTION.

The Cuban Constitutional Convention Called to Order by Gov.-Gen. Wood.

WISE WORDS AND WHOLESOME ADVICE.

Resolutions Adopted Expressing Satisfaction at the Course of Gov.-Gen. Wood and Gratitude and Affection for the Honesty Demonstrated by the President of the United States.

Havana, Nov. 6.—The Cuban constitutional convention met in Mariá y the afternoon at two o'clock. Long before that hour the theater was crowded. Many thousands were unable to gain admittance and the streets in the neighborhood were blocked with people.

Gen. Wood and his staff, accompanied by Mr. Richard Lee and his staff, received an ovation on entering, the bands playing "America."

Senor Clemente Gen. Rivera escorted Gen. Wood to the platform, and he almost immediately opened the convention.

"As military governor of the island of Cuba and representing the president of the United States," he said, "I call this convention to order. It will be your duty first of all to frame and adopt a constitution for Cuba, and when that has been done, you will formulate what, in your opinion, ought to be the relations between Cuba and the United States."

"The constitution must be adequate to secure stable, orderly and free government. When you have formulated the relations which, in your opinion, ought to exist between Cuba and the United States, you will, doubtless, take such action on its part as shall lead to a final and authoritative agreement between the people of the two countries to the promotion of their common interests."

"All friends of Cuba will follow our deliberations with the deepest interest, earnestly desiring that they reach just conclusions and that the dignity, individual self-restraint and wise conservatism which shall characterize your proceedings be the capacity of the Cuban people for representative government may be signally illustrated."

"The fundamental distinction between true representative government and a dictatorship is that in the former every representative of the people, in whatever office, confines himself strictly within the limits of his defined powers. Without such restraint there can be no free constitution."

"I am very pleasant to which you have just elected and to which you have no duty and no authority to take part in the present government of the island. Your powers are strictly limited by the terms of that order."

"Before withdrawing Gen. Wood wished the delegates a speedy and successful conclusion of their work."

The convention organized with Senor Florentino, justice of the supreme court, as president, and Senor Villanueva as secretary.

"The following oath was then administered: 'We, delegates, elected by the people of Cuba to the national constitutional convention, swear faithfully to fulfill the duties of our office. We publicly and solemnly renounce allegiance to no monarch made with any state or nation, whatever its name, and we directly, swearing to the sovereignty of the free and independent people of Cuba, and swear to maintain the order of this convention may adopt, as well as the government established by the constitution.'"

"All of the 23 delegates were present. Senor Alencar, who said that the convention was 'only a continuation of the fight for the independence of Cuba,' moved that the regulations governing the old Cuban assembly at Yaya, in 1896, be adopted. An nobody seemed familiar with them the convention adjourned until to-day at 2 p. m., when copies will be furnished to the delegates."

The following resolutions were presented to the president of the convention, just before adjournment, and will probably be adopted to-day:

"The undersigned delegates propose that the constitutional assembly adopt the following resolutions:

"First.—That a committee of the assembly proceed immediately to call on Gen. Wood to manifest the satisfaction with which the delegates have seen him carry out the difficult mission assigned him."

"Second.—That the undersigned request Gen. Wood to cable to the president of the United States as follows: 'The delegates elected to the constitutional convention assembled at their inaugural meeting greet with profound gratitude and affection the president of the United States of America, and they are satisfied with the honesty demonstrated in the fulfillment of the declarations made in favor of liberty and the independence of the Cuban people.'"

Our Daily Duty.

We need not be discouraged if our work seems to be a small one. When God works by men, He uses only small beginnings. The mustard seed was an illustration of His kingdom upon earth, and from it may be drawn a picture of the church to which all nations in time will come, but what we must be individually concerned about is our daily duty and the motive which prompts us in performing it, for too little value is placed upon the little duties which fall to the share of each one.

Many regard these with indifference or contempt and try in every possible way to shirk or neglect them. The result is that they are either thrown over on other shoulders already overburdened or neglected altogether.—Lutheran.

The People's Liberation.

When Christ was dying on the cross, he made a will. Perhaps you have thought that no man could remember his own will. If you are in the kingdom, Christ died, for it was to His disciples He said, "Hence I leave with you; My peace I give unto you. They say a man can't make a will now that lawyers can't break and drive a four-in-hand straight through. I challenge them to break this one. Let them try it. No judge or jury can set Christ's will aside, for He rose to execute it himself. If He had left us a lot of gold, we should never have got it, for thieves would have stolen it in the first century. But He left His peace—D. L. Moody.

A Higher, More Creative Thing to Do.

To do what we ought is an altogether higher, more creative thing to do. Creative thing than to write the grandest poem, paint the most beautiful picture, create the noblest statue or dream the most enchanting dream.

If you have ever seen the Lord, if only from afar, if you have any vaguest suspicion that Jesus was a better man than other men, one of your first duties must be to open your ears to His words and see whether they comfort and cheer you as true; then, if you do, obey them with your whole strength and might—George MacDonald.

The Secret of a Calm and Happy Life.

The secret of a calm and happy life and death is to have an habitual sense of God's presence and communion of your soul with Him, to walk with Him in the abiding consciousness of His loving eye never removed. His loving arm never untwined. Christ dwells in the believer's heart, and He is always near. What we all need to learn is how to walk with Him, hour by hour, as a man with his friend—without effort thinking of Him, without hesitation obeying Him, without embarrassment speaking of Him, to have Him wherever we go, to have Him by asking Him to share it, to rob us of its carelessness by casting it on Him in prayer—Episcopal Recorder.

God and the Future.

"Why look into and worry about the future? You cannot, no matter how hard you try, see the things that are to be, and you could not understand them if you did. Meet today's responsibilities bravely and discharge its duties faithfully and for the future trust God.—Episcopal Recorder.

COMPARED WITH THAT OF LAST YEAR.

Republicans are in quite a good humor over the gains Tuesday's election shows for them in twenty-three of the twenty-four precincts in Hopkins county. NO CHANCE TO LOSE.

With Sixty-Five Counties Officially Reported, Yerkes Has a Plurality of 3,000.

Louisville, Nov. 7.—Chairman Leslie Coombs, of the Republican Campaign Committee, said this afternoon:

"We have official returns from sixty-five counties in the State, which show a net plurality of 3,000 for Yerkes. There is no chance for him to lose. Conceding Beckham the maximum in the other counties, Yerkes is still a sure winner.

"Yerkes has been elected Governor of Kentucky. He will have a plurality that will be sufficient and one that under the circumstances is very handsome.

"As to which candidate for President will get the electoral vote of the State, it is like tossing a nickel, but there is no longer any doubt in the Governor's race.

BALM IN GILEAD.

But Very Little of It Afforded Bryan by the Colorado Returns.

Denver, Col., Nov. 7.—Returns received up to 4 a. m. indicate that Bryan has carried Colorado by 35,000 plurality at least. This is over 100,000 less than in 1896. The fusionist State ticket is elected by between 25,000 and 30,000, a reduction of nearly half of the vote for Governor two years ago. The leaders of the fusionists will concede but twelve of the Legislative ticket to the Republicans, which, if correct, will eliminate Senator E. G. Walcott from the race.

More fatal riots have recently occurred in Spain, in which several Carlists were killed.

ACCUSED OF GROSS FRAUDS.

Warrants Will Be Sworn Out Against Election Officers Said to Have "Done the Work" in Breathitt.

The following telegram was received by Chairman Coombs today at noon: "Breathitt gives Hall 1,549, O'Rear 835, official. Great frauds perpetrated. A steal of more than 800 Republican votes in Terry precinct, No. 5, and Crockettville precinct No. 6. Refused to admit inspectors and ejected our challengers."

Chairman Coombs at once wired instructions to swear out warrants before Commissioner for the arrest of the offending parties, who will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

SHOT AT CLAUDE BAKER.

Outcome of Bad Blood Stirred Over the Arrest of Ellis Headley.

NO INJURY WAS DONE

Paducah, Ky., Nov. 6.—Claude Baker made a remark last night reflecting upon the personnel of the bondsmen of Ellis M. Headley, son of Capt. John W. Headley, who was arrested on the cooked up charge of bribing Will E. Baker. James E. Robertson took Baker's remark as reflecting upon him and assaulted Baker after a quarrel. Baker knocked Robertson down and Robertson fired two shots from a revolver at Baker, neither taking effect. Robertson was placed under $300 bond to await trial.

The Baker boys are brothers and formerly lived in Earlington. They are sons of Lute Baker, deceased.

JUDGE PRATT.

Closed Campaign With a Bit Speech to a Big Audience.

Judge Clifton J. Pratt closed the campaign in Hopkins County with a speech to a large audience at Masonic Hall Monday night. A number of ladies were present. The Earlington people had been looking forward to the coming of Judge Pratt and were much pleased with his strong and convincing argument delivered in his own good and catchy style. The house was packed and the people were better pleased with the Judge's speech than with perhaps any other during the whole campaign.

GREAT GOODNESS!

The Workman Voted and McKinley Gets 300,000 Majority in Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, Nov. 7.—Later returns indicate that Pennsylvania gave over 300,000 plurality for the Republican ticket, exceeding even the record-breaking plurality of 295,027 in 1896. Of this plurality Philadelphia furnished over 125,000 and Allegheny county including Pittsburgh nearly 50,000. Bryan carried fifteen out of the sixty-seven counties in the State.

Returns are not yet complete, but the indications are that the next Pennsylvania delegation in Congress will stand: Republicans, 20; Democrats, 4, as against twenty Republicans and ten Democrats in the present Congress.
